

NATION-WIDE RAID ON REDS

RADICALS IN 33 CITIES ARRESTED

U. S. Government, Acting Through Department of Justice, Conducts Greatest Round-up of Undesirables in History of the Nation

OVER 1,500 IN CUSTODY

Officials Express Opinion That Twice This Number Would Be Behind the Bars by Daylight This Morning; Biggest "Bag" in New York, Over 300 Are Jailed

Washington, Jan. 2. — The greatest round-up of radicals in the nation's history was conducted tonight by the government, acting through department of justice agents, in 33 cities stretching from coast to coast.

At midnight, reports indicated that more than 1,500 members of the Communist and Communist Labor parties, against whom the raids were directed, were in custody, and department of justice officials expressed the opinion that daylight would see twice that number behind the bars.

Not alone was the round-up the largest yet conducted by the government in its efforts to rid the country of radicalism, but in the view of officials it was the most thoroughly carried out. Department of justice agents had been instructed several days ago and at 9 o'clock tonight the move was begun on the radical headquarters, whether in Portland, Maine, or in Portland, Oregon.

Got Reds "With Goods On"

Department of justice operatives were directed to catch the radicals "with the goods on," and that these operations were carried out was evidenced in reports particularly from New York, where the offices of Communist newspapers were raided, and from New England, where considerable literature prepared for dissemination by the two parties was seized.

Biggest Bag in Gotham

The largest cities in which raids were conducted follow: New York, Baltimore, Boston, Buffalo, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Hartford, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Louisville, Milwaukee, Newark, Omaha, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Portland (Me.), Portland (Ore.), Providence, San Francisco, Scranton, Spokane, St. Louis, St. Paul, Springfield (Mass.), Syracuse, Toledo, and Trenton.

Minor Raids were Made in Other Cities

The general charge of attempting to overthrow the government by force and violence was placed against the prisoners arrested during the raids.

Officials here declared the nationwide roundup was the most completely planned and the machinery was the best suited for this of any raids launched against the radical elements in this country.

It was arranged some days ago that the raids should take place, and confidential communications were sent to department of justice representatives and United States attorneys in the 33 cities.

Incriminating Documents Sought

Department of justice agents desire most of all to capture incriminating documents, not much of the literary and propaganda, but papers showing details of the Communist organization in each city. It was indicated that if such evidence was obtained, deportation of the persons concerned would be an easy matter. As in the case of the members of the Union of the Russian Workers, several scores of them are aboard the transport "Burma," which sailed from New York ten days ago, membership cards in the organization were regarded by officials as constituting the best documentary evidence on which to base deportation cases.

Officials said the only difference between the Communist party and the Communist Labor party was one of leadership. Both have been endeavoring to bring about the establishment of a Soviet form of government in this country since their organization last September, according to officials.

Documents gathered by federal agents recently show conclusively, it was said, that plans were drawn up by the leaders of each of these parties to develop a score or more of cells throughout the country. These cells were to be merged under a Soviet model similar to that which now exists in Russia, according to Mr. Gar-among the negroes. Their attempts to organize the negroes in support of plans to overthrow the present political and economic system were carried far and officials admitted that this propaganda had gone to such a length that trouble may yet be expected among certain negro communities.

Mr. Garvan made public information gathered by the federal agents showing the nature of the work done among the negroes. One document contains the following:

"In close connection with the unskilled workers, is the problem of the negro. The negro presents a political and economic problem. The racial oppression of the negro is simply the oppression of his economic bondage and oppression, each intensifying the other. This complicates the negro problem but does not alter its proletarian character. The Communist party will carry on agitation among the negro workers to unite them with all class-conscious workers."

In connection with the announcement of the raids tonight, Attorney General Palmer made public a letter which he had written to Macley Hoynes, state's attorney for Cook county at Chicago, in which Mr. Hoynes was requested to defer the local raid conducted there last night.

Mr. Palmer explained in his letter that the department of justice had planned a nationwide campaign against the same people which were to be raided by Mr. Hoynes' agents in Chicago. Department officials said they were without information as to why the Chicago raid went through last night, when Mr. Hoynes had full information as to the plans of federal agents to do the same work tonight.

Red Emissaries in Many Cities

Advance information on the activities of the Communist party revealed that its emissaries were in many cities, boring into labor organizations which hitherto had been noted for their conservatism. Literature obtained by federal agents made it apparent that the Communist leaders were concentrating on plans to obtain control of well-founded labor groups. Through this method, they planned to exert their power politically and to put forward candidates which could be regarded by government officials as nothing more than destructive elements within the present government.

Officials are working on the theory that a high power is directing the work of both organizations and that the leaders who are behind this directing hand only recently have come to this country from Russia. This belief, they said, was supported by evidence gathered by representatives of this and the Allied governments in the heart of Soviet Russia. It is known that agents of the allied nations have been working for nearly two years among the followers of Lenin and Trotsky, and their efforts have resulted in connecting links in the chain of Soviet propaganda in this country and the Soviet leaders in Russia.

Between 700 and 800 Reds Are Arrested in New York

New York, Jan. 2.—Between 700 and 800 radicals were arrested tonight in Greater New York as the city's share in a nation-wide round-up of subversive mongers and anarchists.

ination but about a dozen were detained for further examination. It was noticeable that while the men were either sullenly silent or obsequiously anxious to obey their captors, the women were openly defiant and constantly rallied at the federal agents and policemen.

Palmer Personally Conducted Raid.

Attorney General Palmer personally directed the great roundup from Washington, which, federal officials here stated, has as its definite aim the ridding of the United States of every alien who has plotted against the American government. The raids were specifically directed against the Communist party and the Communist Labor party.

The first arrested radicals began to arrive at the local headquarters of the department of justice at 9:15 p. m., when a party of 12 men was brought in a police wagon. The raid was immediately commenced by Chief Flynn and his assistants.

At 10:15, Chief Flynn announced that about 200 arrests had already been made and that additional ones were being constantly reported. As fast as the radicals arrived at the department of justice offices, they were segregated into aliens and citizens and the foreigners were photographed and fingerprinted prior to their departure for Ellis Island. Only one woman had been arrested up to that time.

Among the radicals arrested tonight was Julius Cockkind, a city tax collector, and an American-born citizen. Cockkind was held on a charge of criminal anarchy, and according to the federal agents, predicted after his arrest that within five years a Communist government would be established in the United States. The agents said that the man had just been elected secretary of a Communist society in Harlem.

Newspaper Headquarters Raided.

Headquarters of Communists and Communist newspapers were raided simultaneously by the federal agents, who were aided by the police and by soldiers. Chief Flynn announced that most valuable information had been obtained in a mass of documents seized. About 75 per cent of the prisoners were declared to be Russians. The radicals were searched for weapons but none was found. The majority of the Reds had large amounts of money on their persons.

Eighty per cent of those taken admitted membership in the Russian Communist party.

Among the radical publications raided was "The New York Mirror," the paper on which Trotsky worked while in New York city. The publication is recognized by Communists here as the official Bolshevik organ. "The Communist World" also was raided.

In various Communist headquarters, including one with the title "Hell Gate Branch," meetings were in progress when the raiders arrived, and from 15 to 20 arrests were made in each place.

The attitude of the Reds as they were herded out of the patrol wagons into department of justice headquarters on Park Row was more questioning than it was resentful. They obeyed orders without quibbling.

Reds Go to Ellis Island.

Scores of barges were moored along the New Jersey shore opposite this city tonight to transport to Ellis Island the radicals rounded up by federal agents in the Northern New Jersey district. The prisoners will be placed aboard the barges in the morning and transported to the island.

Four hundred and ten warrants were issued for radicals in the Hudson and Bergen county districts, but most of the men were taken in the lower section of Jersey City, where they lived. There were about 150 men sought in Bayonne. According to the federal agents, more than 1,000 active Communists have been enrolled in Northern New Jersey since last September.

Raids also were carried out in New Brunswick, Elizabeth, Paterson, South River, Passaic, Plainfield, Dover and Bayonne. All the prisoners were sent to Newark for the night.

The Communist party represents the advocates of violence and heads its international membership with the names of Nicholas Lenin and Leon Trotsky. In the United States, it has found its main sources of recruits among the most ignorant of the alien population. What the Communists stand for was set forth in a manifesto by Lenin which was produced in evidence at today's hearing before the Lusk legislative committee in Rochester.

This manifesto declared that the Communists must plan for the disarmament of the bourgeoisie, the arming of the "laborers," and the formation of a Red army similar to that of the Russian Soviet. It declared that conquest of political power should mean not merely a change in personnel but annihilation of all opponents.

Sunday schools had been formed in New York, Rochester and other cities, where the children of aliens were taught the Communist doctrine and encouraged to ridicule all religious beliefs. Testimony before the Lusk committee developed that a close connection existed between the American Communist organization and the bar-

Deported Reds Observe New Year's on High Seas

New York, Jan. 2.—Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman and the other deported radicals who made up the passenger list of the "Soviet Ark" Buford, now on its way to Russia, observed the passing of 1919 and the advent of 1920 on the high seas. A wireless message from the ship, filed New Year's Day, gave her position as approximately two-thirds of the way across the Atlantic.

The Buford has taken a route well north of the Azores.

stage of open violence came on May day of last year, when the nation was shocked by the discovery of a country-wide plot to assassinate more than a score of high government officials and prominent citizens.

That a nation-wide conspiracy existed was first brought to light on April 30, when 17 dynamite bombs were found in the mails in the New York postoffice.

The bombs were addressed to many cabinet and government officials and prominent citizens, including: Attorney General Palmer, Postmaster General Burleson, United States Judge Landis of Chicago, Secretary of Labor Wilson, John D. Rockefeller, J. P. Morgan, U. S. Commissioner of Immigration Caminetti, W. M. Woods of Boston, Governor Sprout of Pennsylvania, John L. Burnett, chairman of the House Immigration committee; and W. J. Shaffer, attorney general of Pennsylvania.

On the night of June 2, the country was again startled by the most daring bomb outrage in the history of the nation, when the home of Attorney General Palmer in Washington was wrecked and infernal machines were exploded, damaging the homes of public officials and prominent business men. Explosions took place in Washington, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Newtonville, Mass., Boston, Philadelphia, Paterson, N. J., and New York city.

Many Buildings Wrecked.

None of the men for whom the bombs were intended was hurt, but one man, a watchman in New York, was killed, several persons were injured, buildings were wrecked, and in Washington one of the plotters himself was blown to pieces when the infernal machine for Attorney General Palmer exploded prematurely.

Attorney General Palmer characterized the activities of the anarchists as an attempt "to terrorize the country and stay the hands of the government" in rounding up radicals and anarchists throughout the nation.

Many arrests followed the bomb outrages, but all efforts to place the blame for the explosions failed.

During the succeeding months, agents of the department of justice and police carried on a relentless war against radicals of all kinds. A campaign against anarchists, Bolsheviks and Communists resulted in hundreds of arrests.

Another nation-wide terrorist plot was frustrated in Cleveland on Oct. 30, when the police rounded up seven men and a woman, alleged to have been involved in a conspiracy to spread terror throughout the country by another series of bomb explosions.

They also were charged with being connected with a plot to assassinate Chief of Police Frank W. Smith of this city.

Sweeping Raid in November.

Early in November, agents of the department of justice, under the personal direction of Chief William Flynn, made another sweeping raid. More than 200 arrests were made in New York. Scores were taken in Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia, and other cities, including many radical agitators whose activities are believed to have been responsible for much of the unrest throughout the nation.

It was in these raids, federal agents declared, that they had captured practically all of the active leaders of the Communist party. Practically every known Communist headquarters throughout the country was wiped out and local officers arrested.

As a climax, Emma Goldman and her associate, Alexander Berkman, the nation's two greatest radical agitators, were deported with 249 other radicals on the ship Buford, which sailed under sealed orders Dec. 31.

With the sailing of the "Soviet Ark," the federal authorities warned the remaining radicals and Communists that other "arks" with deportees would likely follow in the near future. The likely follow in the near future. The likely follow in the near future.

The present raids are a sequel to the government's promise to rid the country of Reds and undesirable.

New England's Toll 300; Raids Are Nation-Wide

Boston, Jan. 2.—More than 300 alleged radicals had been arrested in New England up to 10:28 o'clock tonight in raids conducted by the agents

H., 150; Springfield, 65; Worcester, 50; Holyoke, 9; Lawrence, 4; Lowell, 30. More than 100 arrests were made in Boston.

Results in Connecticut.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 2.—Raids on the headquarters of alleged radicals were made tonight simultaneously in 17 cities and towns in the federal district comprising the state of Connecticut, and reports at an early hour showed that many arrests had been made. Twelve men were taken in Ansonia, while South Manchester and Meriden reported half a dozen arrests between them. In this city, Bridgeport and New Haven, extensive search was made and many reds are expected to be arrested.

New London, Conn., Jan. 2.—

In Central and Western Cities.

Cleveland, Jan. 2.—Up to 10 o'clock tonight, 20 alleged radicals had been arrested here, including the heads of the local Communist party. Assisted by police, county officials and Loyal American League operatives, the federal authorities searched the homes of the alleged radicals and seized literature and group pictures.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—The federal department of justice tonight started a new campaign against radicals. A government agent appeared at a police station with a list of places which he asked the police to raid. States Attorney Macley Hoynes last night arrested 200 radicals, asserting that federal agents had failed to aid in a plan to round up Reds.

The federal agent arrived at the station soon after a police raid on an L. W. W. reading room, the second time the officers had visited the place in 24 hours. Only a few arrests were made at the reading room.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 2.—Six alleged radical leaders were arrested tonight in raids by department of justice representatives in Denver in connection with the nation-wide roundup.

SUGAR BEET FARMERS WILL ORGANIZE TO FIGHT "TRUST"

Washington, Jan. 2. — Country-wide organization of sugar beet farmers to fight the so-called sugar trust, is the object of a joint convention of farmers' organizations called to meet in Denver Jan. 26.

The call declares the country is producing less than one-fourth the sugar consumed in it, and asserts "the national sugar bowl is in the clutches of a few powerful corporations which are so organized and united as to form a most menacing trust."

The object of the convention, the call states, is to expand and preserve the sugar beet industry, reduce the shortage, and restore normal prices. None but farmers will be accepted as delegates in the convention.

29 BUFFALO SALOONS RAIDED; BARRELS OF WHISKEY SEIZED

Buffalo, Jan. 2. — Jay Farrier, deputy excise commissioner, and 25 special agents, today raided 29 saloons here, the proprietors of which are alleged to have continued the sale of liquor after surrendering their state licenses. The evidence and several barrels of which were seized were turned over to the district attorney, who will prosecute the cases.

The raid was the first made here under section and article 11 of the constitution carries a penalty of both fine and imprisonment.

Air Mail Carrier Makes Non-Stop Flight Record

Washington, Jan. 2. — All American records for a non-stop flight over more than 200 miles are believed by post office department officials to have been broken today by James H. Knight, an air mail pilot, who flew with a load of mail from Cleveland to Bellefonte, Pa., a distance of 215 miles, in 53 minutes. The flight was made at an average speed of 156 miles an hour and was seven minutes better than a similar trip made by Knight last September. The start from Cleveland was made in a raging snow storm.

FORMER GERMAN SHIPS TO BE SOLD

Shipping Board Will Dispose of 30 Liners Once Pride of Hun Passenger Fleet

LEVIATHAN IS ONE

Proposals for Their Purchase Will Be Received Only From American Buyers

Washington, Jan. 2.—Thirty former German passenger ships, seized when the United States entered the war, including the Leviathan, the largest vessel afloat, the Agamemnon, the George Washington, and others which were the pride of the German merchant marine, were offered for sale today by the shipping board.

Proposals for the purchase of the vessels, which may be filed up to Jan. 20, will be received only from American buyers and must include a pledge to use the ships on lines designated by the shipping board.

Decision of the board to offer the former German liners for sale was determined principally by the cost of reconditioning them for passenger service. Chairman Payne said in announcing that the vessels were for sale. Many of the vessels were used by the war department as transports both before and after the armistice, and the cost of refitting them for passenger service has been estimated by shipping board officials at approximately $50,000,000.

World Passenger Service.

By restricting the sale of the ships to American interests and to permanent service on designated lines, the board expects to accomplish the establishment of its proposed passenger service program to all parts of the world along the same lines that would have been followed had the board itself put the liners into service.

The vessels of the first class type offered for sale are the Leviathan, Agamemnon, Mount Vernon, Von Steuben, George Washington, Martha Washington (Austrian), America, De Kalb, Aeolus, Huron, Princess Matoka, Pocahontas, Callac, Moccasin, Blaik Arrow, An Otsego. Fourteen others of the intermediate type, adapted for stowage and cargo, including the President Grant, Antigone, Mercury, and Amphion, also are offered to buyers.

The ships are to be turned over to the successful bidders upon payment of 25 per cent of the purchase price and satisfactory fulfillment of other terms of sale. Such of the vessels as are not sold at this time will be used by the board in passenger service until the whole of the government fleet has passed into private hands.

TREATY TALK GROWS WARMER

Efforts to Break Deadlock Renewed as Senators Return From Holiday Vacation

EXPRESS HOPEFULNESS

Both Sides Betray Confidence That in the End Reservations Agreement Will Be Reached

Washington, Jan. 2.—Efforts to break the peace treaty deadlock in the senate were renewed today as senators of both parties began returning from their holiday trips preparatory to the reconvening of congress Monday.

The only surface developments to indicate the trend of the negotiations were a number of conferences in which both Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, and Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, acting leader of the Democrats, were prominent figures, though they did not see one another. All of the conferences declined to go into details, but they gave an impression of hopefulness that the day's work had advanced the situation toward an agreement. "Who should make the first open move for a compromise, however, continued to be a warmly-debated question, each side apparently maneuvering, while the negotiations went on under the surface, to force the other side to be the first to break from its former position. Senator Lodge still maintained that any compromise move should come from the Democrats, and Senator Hitchcock insisted that the initiative should be taken by the Republicans.

Both Sides Feel Out Sentiment.

Meantime, both sides were actively at work on proposals they hoped to use once the wheels of compromise formally were set in motion, and were feeling out sentiment on the opposite side of the party fence in preparation for the break which would bring the whole situation to a head.

Article X was the crux of all discussion, neither side having found much favor for its roundabout proposals on the subject. Next in prominence was the question of voting power in the league of nations, with the Democrats apparently determined to make some modifications in the reservation adopted at the last session by the Republican majority. There were a few other points of difference, but the general impression seemed to be that an agreement on Article X would almost end the entire controversy.

In declaring formal compromise offers must come from the Democrats, the Republican leader reiterated that enough senators to defeat ratification were pledged to accept no compromise that would impair materially the majority reservation position of the last session. To this, Senator Hitchcock replied that there were enough on his side of the chamber to defeat ratification who were pledged against any compromise that did not impair materially the majority program.

Yet both sides betrayed confidence that in the end enough senators to ratify would be able to agree in their definitions of the word "materially" as applied to modification of the reservations.

LUSK COMMITTEE ADJOURNS

Closes Upstate Hearings at Rochester Where Amalgamated Clothing Workers Were Incriminated

Rochester, Jan. 2.—The Lusk committee closed its upstate hearings here today after it had heard evidence tending to show that the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America is syndicalistic and that the Rochester Young People's Socialist league was affiliated with the Communist party and active in urging the use of "bottle tactics" to conquer the power of the state.

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers, which controls workers in all but one of Rochester's large clothing factories, are linked up with Assemblyman Cleggman, with Senator Voorhees, of the Soviet bureau, with Drake, of the Political Prisoners' Defense fund, and with the Communist party. Ramsey W. Finch, special investigator for the committee, took the stand several times during the day and said he had information to prove that when the Rochester Clothing manufacturers signed the agreement with the Amalgamated, one instance they were not already in the organization and forced about 80 per cent of their employees to subscribe to the doctrine of the Amalgamated.

NEW YEAR ON WALL ST
OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY

Stocks Add Many Substantial
Gains to Advances Made
Earlier in Week

New York Jan. 2.—The new year opened auspiciously in the financial district, the stocks adding many substantial gains to the wide range of advances made in the early days of the week.

Trading was not especially active until the final hour, when call money dropped from its initial rate of 15 to 6 per cent, but what it lacked in that respect was more than balanced by the diversified dealings. Although the current month will witness interest and dividend disbursements of almost $100,000,000, today's money rates were surprisingly easy, this condition, however, applying only to demand funds.

Perceptible improvement was also shown by leading foreign remittances, the London quotation hardening despite the new low record made by the Bank of England in its proportion of reserves to liabilities.

Stocks' equipment's motors and their specialties dominated the session at extreme gains of 2 to 6 points, many of these attaining their highest levels since the November reversal. Oils, tobacco, leathers, shippings, and paper shares contributed their quota with rails, but gains in transportation were comparatively moderate.

The more distinctive specialties, notably American Woolen, rose and fell within a 5 point radius, and many unclassified issues displayed similar erratic tendencies, although closing mostly at gains.

Factors of the day, in addition to the extraordinary demand for fabricated steel and iron, included another rise in the price of copper metal, and tensions of more "extra" dividends.

Bonds were strong, especially speculative issues, and the Liberty group rallied with international. Total sales, par value, aggregated $17,775,- 000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

AFTER THE HOLIDAYS.

Now that the season of the holidays is over and both the Christmas of 1919 and the New Year of 1920 have passed into the limbo of vanished if not forgotten things, humanity in general will no doubt resume the ordinary routine of existence. The burdens perhaps briefly laid down will be taken up, and it may not be long before having learned to write '20 instead of '19, we will be treading the humdrum way of other years. None the less there are home lessons which the holiday season always bring which it would be well not soon or indeed ever to forget.

Of Loving and Giving.

During the holiday season there are a multitude of gifts presented to relatives and friends and also to other perhaps less fortunate circumstances. They are of course in every instance appreciated, and though these gifts range all the way from a mere seasonal card to things infinitely more costly and substantial they are prized alike for the gift itself, and for the spirit of loving remembrance by which actuated. It is something which warms the heart—the mere thought that in the midst of the activities of the closing year and the demands of it in many ways, the one who gives has taken time for at least a kindly thought of another.

And if the recipient is happy, not less so is the giver. It is a fine thing to be remembered, and not less so to remember; and like the quality of mercy as depicted by Shakespeare in "The Merchant of Venice," giving is twice blessed, blessing him that gives and him who takes. There is probably not one who at the end of the holiday season does not feel as happy in the remembrance of things done, as in the recollection of gifts received.

Why Not Through the Year.

If, therefore, the season of holiday remembrance is so fine a thing, why may not the whole year be made as fine and lovable—not necessarily by way of giving material things, but at least by keeping alive the spirit of the season, the thoughtfulness of the home circle and the solicitude for the welfare of others which to so large a degree is a feature of the closing days of December?

There is not one who does not feel in every way better for what seasonable things he has done during the period just passed; and though continued remembrance is not in general expected, at least there are features of the season that may for the whole year round be retained. There can be the same personal consideration, mutual tolerance and kindly fellowship which would help not only to make a Happy New Year but a happy whole year. It only needs to keep the flame of human love which the holidays have kindled, still burning in the breast. Even more frequent letters to friends away may be a continued holiday remembrance.

And of Material Giving.

These things are of the spirit, but after all the material things should not be forgotten. Proper consideration for the poor, for the unfortunate, and for children in need is by no means wholly satisfied by Christmas trees, or gifts of food, clothing and money at that time. Their need is not a transient one. They will always be with us, and obligation is not always fully discharged by holiday giving. Rather the actual pleasure which it brings to the giver continues often to glow in the heart, and inspires, to further deeds of generosity. Individual need is not of any single season, and the desire to satisfy such needs also may well be year long.

Of Those Abroad.

If the paragraphs above may seem to apply mainly to local and personal conditions, be sure that the call to the generous heart is not localized. There are organizations for general purposes, some of them worldwide, which, at least until present pitiful conditions abroad are alleviated, will continue to make their appeal. There is that wonderful benevolence, the Red Cross, there are the various activities for France and Belgium and the Far East, and there is the Armenian Relief fund, for which The Star has lately asked subscription. Contributions for this latter purpose are being received daily and forwarded to the authorities in New York city. There are doubtless others who, now that the holiday stress is over, will desire to contribute. For these the opportunity still remains and this office will gladly see that the money is forwarded to its proper recipients.

Mostly Nonsense.

The talk about a blank presidential election on the 15th of January is mostly nonsense unless Congress, or the state legislatures, could prior to the law for placing the direct question actually on the ballot for a "yes" or "no" answer be given. In selecting a president, the people will necessarily be strongly influenced by many considerations aside from the peace treaty and the League of Nations.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

Judge for Northern New York.

There is an immense amount of gossip, most of which is by no means disinterested, about the proposed appointment of a United States judge for the northern district of New York. A dispatch in the Evening Post credits Attorney General Palmer with favoring Mr. Murphy of Troy, who presumably is the best politician and has the best political backing him. That, however, should not be the wisest argument in favor of selecting a judge. Again it is respectfully submitted that on the merits the name of Hon. Charles A. Talcott of Utica should be favorably considered in this connection. It is the President and not Mr. Palmer or Mr. Tamm who really makes the selection. —[Utica Press.]

Lay Blame on the Papers.

Attention of the people who are forever saying "That's another newspaper story" is called to that cruel report of the President's death, made to Vice-President Marshall. The biggest, most damnable, inexcusable lie on earth never saw the inside of a newspaper office. They are the chaps who keep newspaper reporters and press association correspondents busy chasing rumors into their lair. —[Toledo Blade.]

Not Worth While.

There is no great competition for the Hungarian throne. In fact, a throne is generally regarded as a style of furniture that represents a maximum of expense and a minimum of comfort. —[Washington Evening Star.]

Eager Bolsheviks.

How eager the Bolsheviks in this country are to join their brethren in Russia and enjoy the freedom that only Bolshevism insures is shown by the strenuous opposition Berkman and Emma Goldman made to deportation. —[Albany Argus.]

Government Effort.

Government effort to stop profiteering in sugar when it is permitted to be plentiful again may be no more successful than has been the supposable effort to keep the supply adequate while prices are restricted. —[Exchange.]

The Hardest Years.

"During the fall of 1817 he became abusive and later in 1818 left her," says the Roselle Park, N. J., Spectator. As Bee says, the first hundred years are the hardest. —[New York Tribune.]

Why There Was Delay.

Weeks passed, while various officials, attempting to effect a settlement, made proposals intended to lure to the mines the workers who could have been reached through the law. Consistent muddling has characterized the attempts to end the strike simply because the government forgot the public and tried to pander to a small faction which sought to impose its will on the people at their expense. —[Albany Argus.]

The One Exception.

An English visitor in town says, "You Americans have so much money you don't know what to do with it." And each and every one of us cheerfully admits the truth of the assertion—with a mental reservation concerning one particular case. —[Philadelphia Public Ledger.]

Indecent Hasten.

Governor Allen is precipitant. He proceeded in an undignified manner to dig coal out of the bowels of the earth to relieve suffering, while Washington dilly-dallied, hemmed and hawed and viewed with alarm. The Kansas Governor will be written down an upstart. —[Toledo Blade.]

Beautifully Trimmed.

Mrs. Styles—This is my new hat, Philip.
Mr. Styles—Oh, yes.
"Don't you think it is beautifully trimmed?"
"Yes, and I suppose I will be when the bill comes in." —[Yonkers Statesman.]

Rastus's Property.

Lawyer—Well, Rastus, as you want me to defend you, have you got any property?
Rastus—No, but I've got a mule, some chickens, and a hog or two.
Lawyer—Those will do very nicely. Now, let's see—what do they accuse you of stealing?
Rastus—Oh, a mule, some chickens and a hog or two. —[Providence Journal.]

MASS MEETING FOR WESTFORD.

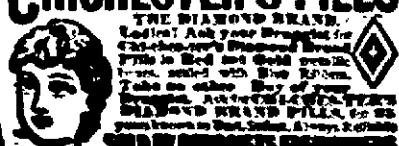

Program for Community Betterment to be Considered Next Tuesday.

On Tuesday, the citizens of Westford township will gather at the Methodist Episcopal church for a noon-day dinner, to be followed by deliberations upon a program for community betterment. The call for the meeting has been given by Floyd S. Wright and John A. Skinner, directors of the Otsego County Improvement Association. President Frank M. Smith and Manager Floyd S. Barlow of the Association have accepted invitations to speak. In all probability, these men will discuss the work of the Association as it relates to Westford and surrounding communities.

It will be remembered that Westford was one of the rural communities to consolidate its schools and to include in the curriculum courses in Agriculture and Home Economics. These courses are in charge of College graduates. The school building itself is a fine structure and is a great addition to the village.

From the standpoint of satisfaction, Knapuck is the coffee for you to use. advt 6t

SON OF OTSEGO HONORED

Dr. G. A. Silliman of Delhi But Formerly of Oneonta Is Appointed Superintendent of Delaware County Tuberculosis Hospital.

Delhi, Jan. 2.—At a meeting of the board of control, composed of Samuel P. Penfield of Delhi, Dr. H. J. Goodrich of Delhi, Mrs. Mary McKinnon of Sidney, Mrs. Flora Bassett of Walton, and Dr. T. L. Craig of Davenport, held in the Court House on Tuesday of this week, Dr. Grover A. Silliman of this village received the appointment of superintendent of the Delaware County Tuberculosis hospital.

Dr. Silliman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Silliman of Oneonta and was born in Westford, Otsego County, in 1890. Attending the public schools, he graduated in 1909 from Oneonta High school, after which he took a course in medicine in the University of Maryland in Baltimore, graduating with honors. He spent one year as a resident physician in St. Vincent's Infant Asylum and Maternity Hospital in that city and one year as House Surgeon in Maryland General Hospital. In the summer of 1914 he came to Oneonta and took over Dr. Cutler's practice for the summer, locating in Delhi the following October.

Upon America's entry in the world war in April, 1917, Dr. Silliman applied for a commission in the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army. He received this commission in June and was ordered to active service in September. After training at Fort Benjamin Harrison, he took a course in War Surgery in Bellevue Hospital New York, and was assigned to Base Hospital in Camp Gordon, serving there until June, 1918, when he was sent to France and was at Base Hospital 43, which was composed of an Atlanta, Georgia, Unit. He spent the entire time while in France at this hospital, with the exception of detached duty with operating units immediately behind the lines. Dr. Silliman was discharged in April, 1919, after receiving the personal recommendation of superior officers, and returned to this country where he resumed his practice.

Delaware County citizens, and especially Delhi people, congratulate Dr. Silliman upon this appointment and feel assured that he will carry out the work in every detail, as he is thorough in all that he does, pleasing in manners, and though still a young man has had wide experience.

LOCAL MENTION.

—The Lutheran, West End Baptist and First Baptist churches will observe the week of prayer, commencing Sunday. Other churches which will observe this week will be announced later.

—Several Oneonta couples have received invitations to a tea to be given this afternoon at 4 o'clock by Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hyde at their country home on Otsego lake, which they are occupying this winter.

—Mrs. Charles Bidwell, aged 71, died last evening at 11:10 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, 8 Walnut street, after a three days' illness. Further announcement will be made in Monday's Star.

—The lure of the Country club still has its grip upon some of our citizens. Yesterday afternoon a group of professional men, accompanied by several young men, went to the club and enjoyed a winter picnic dinner last evening.

—The many friends of Mel Farone, who has been quite ill at his home of pneumonia, will be pleased to learn that his condition is much improved. During the past two days he has been able to leave his bed and sit up about the house.

—The Gardner Philharmonic orchestra will begin its rehearsals for the second concert of the season on Sunday at Municipal hall. The strings are called for 3:30 and general rehearsal at 4. The concert will be given early in February.

—Miss Margaret Carr, daughter of Mrs. Vivian Carr, entertained a company of 14 of her young friends last evening. The young folks enjoyed very much the music and dancing at the residence of her mother, and later attended the performance at the Strand. Afterward they repaired to Kandyland, where delicious refreshments were served.

—The New Year's dinner at The Oneonta hotel, served from 12:30 to 2 o'clock, was well patronized, numerous family parties being entertained there. The spacious dining room was prettily decorated with holiday greens and red bells, and Canning's orchestra rendered a choice musical program during the dinner. The menu was a most appetizing and satisfying one, fully sustaining the repute of the hotel.

—There are still a large number of Red Cross seals out for which no returns have been received. The County Tuberculosis committee would like to have them as soon as possible. To date not enough has been received to make possible a county school nurse. The organization is still in hopes of the people of the county, realizing the value of this feature of the program, will still make it possible.

Darn Hard Questions.

For some of you to answer: Why don't you get ahead as fast as others who get less wages? Why don't you get a home nest, all your own, as other fellows do who get lower wages? At every pay-day, why is it that your wages slip away from you and you don't know where they go? You can't answer, hey? No, I know you couldn't. Well, I know and I'll tell you. It's because you have not learned how our good Uncle Sam helps me to safely combine small amounts of little fellows' money into a large amount and thus make the little fellow's dollar earn as much as the wealthy fellow's dollar. It's because I am now thus earning over $72,000.00 compound interest each year for little fellows. It's because, with the help of Uncle Sam, I make real money pay for homes and farms, have safely rolled up millions of dollars for little fellows and am now starting a new bunch for half a million more, and if you get in with them, you'll not only learn how it is done, but you'll be a darn sight better off. I am the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association. advt 11

OPTICAL COMPANY FORMED

To Take Over and Manage the Wholesale Optical Business Established by Franklin J. Ives—Capital Stock $25,000.

The Oneonta Optical company has been incorporated with the secretary of state at Albany with a capital stock of $25,000 to take over and conduct the wholesale optical business established by Franklin J. Ives. The incorporators named are Franklin J. Ives, his wife, Harriett E. Ives, and daughter, Katharine M. Ives. Others will later, it is understood, become financially interested in the company. It is expected that J. F. Tufts, who recently came to the city from Evansville, Ill., and became associated with this branch of the business will become manager and Harold S. Smith, son of Dr. J. C. Smith, now engaged as secretary to Dr. George J. Dann, chairman of the Thrift drive movement, will also become one of the company.

The equipment and machinery for the wholesale department, formerly located at 177 Main street over Mr. Ives' optical parlors, have been removed to the building recently purchased at 321 Main street and the new company commences operations at the latter location with the opening of the new year. It is planned to expand and develop the wholesale department and the new organization will be given full charge thereof.

Mr. Ives, in announcing the organization of the company and its plans for developing the business, desires it understood that his optical parlors and his retail business which remain fully his own personal property will remain at the old location at 177 Main street.

On New Year's day Mr. Ives gave a dinner at The Oneonta to the entire force to be engaged with the new company, which all greatly enjoyed. All embark upon the project with enthusiasm and energy and it is confidently expected that a substantial expansion will result.

The definite date and the program will be announced in a later issue of The Star.

THREE LIVES ENDANGERED

When Motor Car of John W. Drouot of New York City, a Guest at New Hobart Hotel at Hobart, Overturns On Davenport Road.

About 8:30 o'clock New Year's night, while motoring from Oneonta to Hobart, where the owner of the car is temporarily stopping at the New Hobart, the Hupmobile touring car of John W. Drouot of New York city, in which with the owner were two male companions, swerved from the highway at a point about two miles east of Davenport Center on the Stamford road and after going some distance turned over, down the embankment on the north side of the highway, the three occupants escaping very fortunately and almost miraculously with a few slight cuts and bruises. According to the men and those who arrived at the scene later, the car turned over three times, going through a barbed wire fence before stopping some distance from the highway.

The accident happened a few rods west of the residence of E. J. White and the car was not moving, according to the occupants, more than 20 or 25 miles an hour when the car swerved to the left and to the edge of the embankment. Mr. Drouot is quoted as saying that he thought he could steer the car back upon the macadam. In any event the speed of the car was apparently little slackened and ran two or three hundred feet along the edge before finally dropping off and turning turtle down the bank.

The top is believed to have saved the men from fatal injuries. The top and windshield were smashed and one wheel ruined. The car was also otherwise damaged. Word was sent to Brannaman's garage in Oneonta and workmen were sent who towed the car to that garage and brought the men back to this city. The car will be repaired by Mr. Brannaman.

Car Skids, Hits Pole.

While Walter Goldsmith was driving his father's Cadillac roadster down Main street Wednesday morning, and while at a point opposite Gardner place, the front wheels of the car got in the car track. While trying to get out of the track for an approaching car the auto skidded, hitting a telephone pole. One of the forward wheels and a fender on the car were demolished, no other damage being done the car, and no one was injured.

THE NEW YEAR'S IN ONEONTA

Dinners, Family Gatherings and Social Events Mark Opening Day.

New Year's was observed in this city with the customary feasts, family gatherings, religious services and social events.

Watch night services were held in many of the churches and were well attended. The hotels observed the day with menus of unusual excellence. At 12:30, dinner was served at the Windsor to 127 people. At the Oneonta Hotel, dinner was served to 125 people and about the same number were served with lunch at 11:45. Dancing commenced at 9 o'clock and continued throughout the evening. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. served dinner at 1:00 in the Y. M. C. A. hall to 108 people. New Year's crowds kept the bowling alleys at the Y. M. C. A. red hot. At the Salvation Army hall, 57 children and 18 adults were served at 7:00 o'clock with an excellent dinner of roast pork, beef, pie, cake, baked beans, cocon, salad, nuts and candy. The diners were entertained by several piano solos rendered by Miss H. Benson.

Crowds at the theatres were abnormal and the programs were unusually good as was evidenced by the favorable comments heard among the out-going audiences.

Social affairs and family gatherings formed an enjoyable part of the day's activities. An unusual number of incoming guests, relatives and friends, was noticeable at the railway station, for several days before New Year's, and perhaps a scarcely smaller number who were to be guests at homes elsewhere.

Water Front Explodes.

The fire department was called to the home of Albert Westfall, 3 Park avenue, at 9:12 o'clock last evening, in response to a telephone alarm of fire. Arriving at the home they found the hot water front in the stove had exploded, showering the room with fire, which the occupants of the home had extinguished before the arrival of the firemen.

It seems the Westfall family had been out of the city for a few days, and had neglected to draw the water from the water front in the stove before leaving and the water had frozen. Upon arriving home a new fire was built, causing the water front to explode. Mr. Westfall was slightly injured by a fragment of the flying metal.

Census Enumerators Start Work.

Census enumerators in the city started work this morning to secure names and other information requested by the government, to complete its fourteenth decennial census. The enumerators have two weeks in which to complete the work and it is reported that the enumerators in this city interviewed on an average of 125 people yesterday.

"Tea for Three" discloses a delicious sense of humor and its situations are intensely dramatic. It is particularly fortunate that the Selwyns were enabled to secure stars of Miss Walker's charm and Mr. Lawford's poise for the presentation of the play, and a cast of unusual excellence, including Dean Borup and Katherine Haden. The Selwyns have staged "Tea for Three" in their usual lavish manner, and its production is said to be one of the most handsome and costly stage settings given a dramatic play in years. MARRIED NEW YEAR'S DAY.

Charles N. Murdock of Oneonta and Miss Sarah Howland of Binghamton

At 12:30 p. m. on New Year's day, at the home of the bride's father, William C. Howland, in Binghamton, occurred the marriage of his eldest daughter, Sarah, and Charles N. Murdock, the well known real estate dealer of this city.

The wedding was very informal, the bride's only attendants being her niece, Miss Eleanor Rose Howland, as flower girl, and her nephew, William Howland, as ring bearer. The couple entered the parlor to the strains of Schubert's wedding march, played by Miss Georgia Hoyle, and the ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Harvey W. Chollar, pastor of the Main Street Baptist church in that city. The bride's gown was of white georgette over satin with pearl and bead trimmings, and she carried a bouquet of white Killarney roses. The house was very prettily decorated with evergreens, silver pine roses and carnations.

Mrs. Murdock is a graduate of Cornell university and has taught in several schools about the state, her last position in that capacity being as instructor in music at the New Paltz State Normal school. When the government called for volunteers war workers she responded and spent 11 months in the ordinance department in Washington and New York city. More recently she has conducted a class in music in Binghamton. She is highly prized by a wide circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdock are away for a month's trip through the middle west, southwest and Florida, returning from which they will be at home at 7 Ford avenue, this city.

Among the guests at the wedding, who numbered 100, were the following from this vicinity: Miss Nellie Murdock, Miss Belle Morris, Mrs. Grant Zell, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Howard, all of this city, and Miss Josephine Howland of Milford.

The family were pleased to have as their guests Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Hiller of Hartwick Seminary and Mrs. Susan Smith of Cooperstown.

Dinner was served in the main dining room at the seminary, a choice menu being prepared and served under the supervision of the institution's cooks. Dr. Hiller spoke reminiscently referring to some unpublished incidents in the lives of the late A. H. Murdock and Frederick T. Jarvis and also of others still among the living and many incidents with which most of the auditors were unfamiliar were related. The occasion was very enjoyable for all.

PAIGE
The Most Beautiful Car in America

Announcing a New Paige Motor

For three years the Paige engineers have been devoting their efforts to the development of a New Six-cylinder motor. With every facility for research and experiment, these men have worked with one definite object in mind—the production of the most efficient power plant in the world.

That motor is now an accomplished fact. It has passed from the laboratory to the road and there it has been tested mercilessly and continuously. It has been subjected to every stress and strain that brutal driving might suggest, but in each instance it has emerged with a flawless record.

These long, exhaustive tests have convinced us that the new Paige Motor is indeed the most efficient of all light sizes. In economy of operation, hill climbing ability, acceleration and flexibility it has far surpassed any power plant developed by this organization.

Best of all it is an original Paige product—conceived by Paige engineers and built by Paige mechanics in the Paige shops. In it we have incorporated every approved feature that is known to automotive engineering.

In brief, it represents the sum total of current engineering knowledge. It expresses accurately and completely the tremendous strides of scientific development during the entire war period. It is a strictly modern achievement—a product of the combined genius of two continents.

A New Paige Car

The war has taught American manufacturers many valuable lessons. In the past three years, for instance, we have developed an entirely new conception of precise manufacturing in large scale production.

You will find a striking example of this practice in the New Paige "Glenbrook" model.

The scrupulously accurate methods that were applied to delicate Government mechanisms are now producing every unit of our car.

With the closest inspection, vastly increased equipment and much broader experience, there could be only one result—a highly refined, highly standardized product.

One ride in the "Glenbrook" tells an eloquent story of finely-balanced construction. The smooth, even power of the motor sweeps you along without a suggestion of vibration or mechanical noise. There is merely a gentle purr from the exhaust as the car glides on its way with the buoyancy of an aeroplane.

All road shocks and jars are immediately absorbed in the velvety spring suspension.

There is no danger of sway or "side slip" no matter what the speed may be, for every ounce of weight in the chassis is distributed with scientific precision.

Inside the car there is body room, leg room and elbow room for five adult passengers to travel in luxurious comfort.

The upholstery is soft and inviting—the equipment and general appointments throughout are the best that money can buy.

So far as the design is concerned, you of course know what to expect, for this is "The Most Beautiful Car in America."

The "Glenbrook" model is our latest achievement. We merely ask you to see it—ride in it—drive it—and form your own opinion. We shall be quite content to abide by the result.
